LOST CAT

LEROY

Our beautiful, frightened and adventurous Siamese-looking (white and caramel with blue eyes) Leroy got spooked during our move and decided to jump out a window and go on a roustabout. That was Saturday at around noon at _____ Ave. Since then his companion animal has wandered her brand new home without her very best friend, meowing when she should be playing with him, and our buddy no longer sleeps above our heads. PLEASE, if you have seen him or if have found him, call us at (xxx) xxx-xxxx
